THE AMERICAN WAY OF LIVING

FRANK MOLLO

"The world is mine!"—this cry echoed from the lips of selfish nobility.
Tyranny reigned supreme—freedom was downtrodden.
"Darkness was on the face of the earth."
But through that darkness pierced a light;
A torch borne in the hands of a free people.
A torch spreading its rays of liberty through the mist and gloom.
Marching, marching, leaders and followers.
Washington and Jefferson,
"Lincoln, the Man of the People,"
Monroe and Madison,
Dewey and Jones,
Lee and Grant,
Barton and Nightingale—
Thousands marching; ever forward,
From north, south, east and west,
Union blessed;
And o'er all a banner, tri-colored symbol,
Our flag.
Thirteen stars, steadily increasing,
Forty-eight states, unity ne'er ceasing.

"This government of the people, by the people, and for the people,
Shall not perish from the earth"—
A promise, a hope, instilled in hearts so long ago—
Now comes to us in ever-increasing volume.
This government must not perish, it must survive!
It will because the people believe in it and will fight for it.
Proven by Hale—"I regret that I have but one life to give for my country"—
He lived for freedom and died for it.
Patrick Henry—"Give me liberty or give me death!"
Today, John Jones, Johnny Smith, your friend and my brother
Are leaving their lives of comfort for you, and you,
and me.
It will survive.

The rays of liberty's torch,
In the hands of the eager crowd,
Will illuminate far corners,
And brighten all it touches.
If all nations had liberty like ours, there would be no
cowering behind doors;
All could step out free and easy;
All could look his neighbor in the eye, and clap him on the back, and wish him a hearty good-day!
All could vote his own ticket at all elections.
All could eat good food and live in a clean house.
And all could worship according to his own belief.
No living in the shadow of a gun;
No fear beaten into one's face and eyes by anxious hours;
No scars beaten into one's back for no reason.
Instead, a smile is radiated in his features
And he looks the world in the eye!

So shout your gladness!
Get behind the world's greatest documents—
Our Constitution and our Declaration of Independence!
Let the world know you live here in a land of democratic principles.
It is the best way—the only way—
THE AMERICAN WAY OF LIVING.

CHARLES WIBLE

THE AMERICAN WAY OF LIVING:

"respects the personality of every individual whatever his origin or status;

"provides for the maximum development of each individual;

"provides an opportunity for each individual to make the best of his natural gifts and encourages him to do so."

Because we believe Mr. Wible incorporates in his philosophy and attitude toward all students these principles of our American Way, because of his thorough understanding of pupils and pupils' problems, because of his pleasant, kind, and good-natured attitude toward all of his students, we are happy to dedicate to him this book.

Foreword

The American Way of Life places upon the schools of our nation the great responsibility of training our youth for healthy, happy, responsible citizenship. It is the task of the school to educate the mind, the spirit, and the body of its citizens.

The various departments of Moorestown High School have tried to impress upon the students how fortunate they are to live in a democracy such as ours. How well these departments have succeeded can be determined best, perhaps, by excerpts from original compositions of the students.

"The Statue of Liberty holds the light for us to see more clearly the truth in all hours of darkness."

EVELYN FALLOWS.

"Democracy is a way of life. It is a working example of the Golden Rule: 'Live and let live.' It is a form of government that grants to the individual the right to be an individual."

PAUL CRESTHULL.

"The American Way of Life gives everyone the right to pursue happiness in his own way, providing he does not infringe upon anyone else's happiness."

GORDON WALKER.

"To me democracy means even more than a goodly heritage, privileges, and responsibilities. It means the kind help and understanding of a people who believe that anything that is honest is honorable."

YVONNE GEE.

Only by continuing to educate the nation's youth and instilling in their minds such thoughts, can we hope to strengthen the meaning and purpose of the American Way of Life.

STUDENT COURT

THE HEALTHY BODY

RUNNING FOR A TOUCHDOWN

To the Seniors of 1942:

Every school has both immediate and ultimate objectives in view toward which are directed both the classroom and extra-curricular activities. Among the objectives of the Moorestown High School are these that cluster around the general concept of Civic Responsibility:

The Moorestown High School endeavors:

1. To stress the concept that for every right inherent in the democratic form of government there is implied a corresponding responsibility.
2. To help pupils to appreciate the value and necessity of orderliness, of logical thinking, of openmindedness, of suspended judgment, of unprejudiced decision.
3. To help pupils to develop attitudes of tolerance, of cooperation, of respect for law and order and for properly constituted authority.
4. To help the individual toward the self-development of democratic compulsion and the voluntary surrender of individual rights which conflict with the general good of the larger society.
5. To help pupils to approach ever more nearly the ideal of self-discipline.

If you as individuals accept your civic responsibilities willingly and discharge them intelligently and with an eye single to the public good, then you will be constructive contributors to the American Way of Life.

George C. Baker.

Supervising Principal.

To Our Seniors of 1942:

Last fall your teachers adopted as their philosophy of secondary education this expression of faith:

"We believe in Democracy as the nearest approximation to ideal government. We believe in Democracy as a social philosophy which has its center in faith in the inherent dignity and worth of the common man. We believe in Democracy as a way of life which finds its finest and fullest expression in service to others.

"We believe that in a Democracy every individual's obligations are just as inalienable as are his rights and that the dutiful performance of the former alone can give moral sanction to the latter.

"We believe that Democracy must be maintained in America with all the power of our resources. We believe that Morality and Education are the most potent instruments in this self-perpetuation.

"We recognize the obligation of the Secondary School to play a vital and personalized part in the training of our youth for healthy, happy, responsible citizenship."

Added to your teachers' faith in Democracy is their faith in you as individuals and as responsible citizens of Our America.

God bless you every one.

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1942

THE Class of 1942 entered the Moorestown High School in September, 1938. The number enrolled at that time was 114 boys and 118 girls, making a total enrollment of 232 students. In September, 1939, twenty-five boys and six girls came to us from Pennsauken, making a new total of 263. During the latter part of our Sophomore year, fifty-three students left for various reasons. Only 210 boys and girls returned in the fall of 1940 to begin the work of the Junior year. From the time of our Sophomore year, when the class reached its peak in numbers, to the time of entering our Senior year, ninety-one students left us. Some of them moved from the district; others moved to different States. Many of this number left to take up various vocations or enter industry.

During our Freshman year, Mrs. Betz advised us and helped to make our year a happy one.

The highlight of our Sophomore year was the selecting of class rings. Mr. Steinmeyer guided us through all of our problems during this year.

In 1940 we became "upper Classmen" and were conscious of the privileges with which this title endowed us. We presented as our Junior play "What a Life" by Clifford Goldsmith. However, the big social event of the year was the Junior Prom. Mr. Barthold was our guide and adviser during the Junior year.

Our activities as Seniors are depicted in this book.

AWAY

"I cannot say, and I will not say
That he is dead . . . He is just away!

With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand,
He has wandered into an unknown land.

And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since he lingers there.

Think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here;

Think of him still as the same, I say:
He is not dead—he is just away!"

—James Whitcomb Riley

COOPERATIVE SPIRIT

THE AMERICAN WAY OF LIFE stresses the cooperative spirit and extends into every realm of human association. In Moorestown High School this cooperative spirit is stressed in the civic, the economic, and the cultural life of the students. By means of these activities the students are given opportunity to carry on, under supervision, those tasks which will train them to take their places as good citizens in their respective communities.

For nineteen years the students of Moorestown High School have shared in the responsibility of governing the school. Through the Civic and Monitor Clubs, students are given an opportunity to work out the traffic problem in the halls and supervise the conduct of the pupils in the corridors, the assemblies, and assist in the study halls.

The cooperative spirit of the American Way of Life is emphasized every day in Moorestown High School when the students repeat: "To Moorestown High School I pledge my whole-hearted allegiance. On my honor I promise earnest cooperation with student officers and teachers and loyal support of all student activities. 'Self-discipline' shall be my slogan."

THE ECONOMIC PHASE OF THE AMERICAN WAY OF LIFE

Moorestown High School prepares its students to meet the economic phase of the American Way of Life by offering them training in any one of six definite courses. For those who plan to go to higher institutions there is the Scientific Curriculum. The General and the Social Scientific Courses aim to give the pupils a cultural, as well as a practical education. For students who wish to go directly from school into business life, there is the Business Education Curriculum with its many practical courses.

Moorestown High School draws a large part of its population from the surrounding rural communities. To meet the needs of these students who wish to continue work on the farm after being graduated from school, an Agriculture Course has been planned.

The economic phase of life is planned for in Moorestown, not only through its various courses, but through its club program as well. The Agriculture Club, the Home Economics Club, the Business Education Society, and many others are planned to train students in the economic phase of the American Way of Life.

During the years 1941-1942, the Agriculture Club has done many interesting things. On November 14, they entered exhibits at Burlington County Vocational Show. Many prizes were won by Moorestown pupils. On January 30, the club attended the State Farm Show at Trenton. Two events of interest are planned for the future. They are the planning of "Victory Gardens" and the entering of the National Vegetable Growers' Contest.

THE BUSINESS EDUCATION SOCIETY

Membership in this society is open to any student taking two or more business subjects. The chief aims of the organization are the developing of a consideration for one's fellowmen and a training toward a fuller, more useful life.

Keeping its aims in mind, the society this year, contributed a number of baskets to the needy at Thanksgiving time. At Christmas time a donation of twenty-five dollars was given to the general school fund. Clothing has been supplied when and where it has been needed.

On April 20 and for four consecutive days after, the club sponsored a movie benefit at the local theater. The proceeds from this venture are to be used to finance a scholarship to Drexel Institute in Philadelphia.

The Stage Club begins work on the setting for the Christmas play.

THE STAGE HAND CLUB

MEMBERS

Committee on Lighting: William Thomas, Joseph O'Brien, Robert Hanson, Joseph Tolotta.
Committee on Staging: Frank Bendel, William Blithe, Eugene Melcer, Earl Compton.
Adviser: Mr. Hutt.

During this year the Stage-Hand Club has been responsible for setting the stage, and taking care of the lighting for the following events: American Legion Play, Christmas Play, Carol Service, Junior Play, Senior Play, Variety Show, Music Festival, and Commencement.

The boys had a wonderful opportunity to work with professional people this year, in connection with the Jessica Dragonette Program.

The Stage Club has had charge of the staging and lighting for all of the regular assemblies, as well as the setting up and running of projectors for motion picture programs. They have assisted with the Grade School and Junior School assembly programs.

All members of the club were outfitted in new uniforms this year.

An appreciation of the "true, the good, and the beautiful" is an essential to a well-rounded education. Moorestown High School has provided amply for this important phase of the training of its students.

For those whose interests lean toward music, there are the Orchestra, the Band, the Boys' Glee Club, the Girls' Glee Club, the Mixed Chorus, the String Ensembles, and the Brass Octet. These clubs unite each year to produce the Christmas Carol Service and the Music Festival. The Orchestra and the Band furnish music for the plays, for assembly programs, and for football games.

Aside from the pleasure derived from actual participation in these organizations, credits toward graduation are given for regular attendance at rehearsal and for faithful work.

Moorestown High School has not overlooked the fact that all music lovers are not necessarily performers. For this group of "listeners" music appreciation classes have been organized. For these classes, the best music of all times is interpreted and its background studied.

Dramatics play an important part in the cultural life at Moorestown. Each year the Junior Class presents a play, at Christmas time a service or play is presented by the school, and the Senior Class play is given in the early spring.

A Variety Show, utilizing many of the talented students in the school is presented each year.

Many of the clubs sponsored by the school have as their aim the cultural advancement of the students. The school publications, the French and Latin Clubs, the Book and the Bible Clubs, all aim to direct the minds of the students toward those things which help provide the beautiful in life.

The Band in formation before the school.

THE BAND

MORE than eleven years ago, there was organized in Moorestown High School a drum and bugle corp. From this drum and bugle corp has grown the High School Band of approximately forty players. Under the leadership of Mr. Gehringer, the Band has become an important institution of the school. Its presence and music at the football games have made these occasions more thrilling.

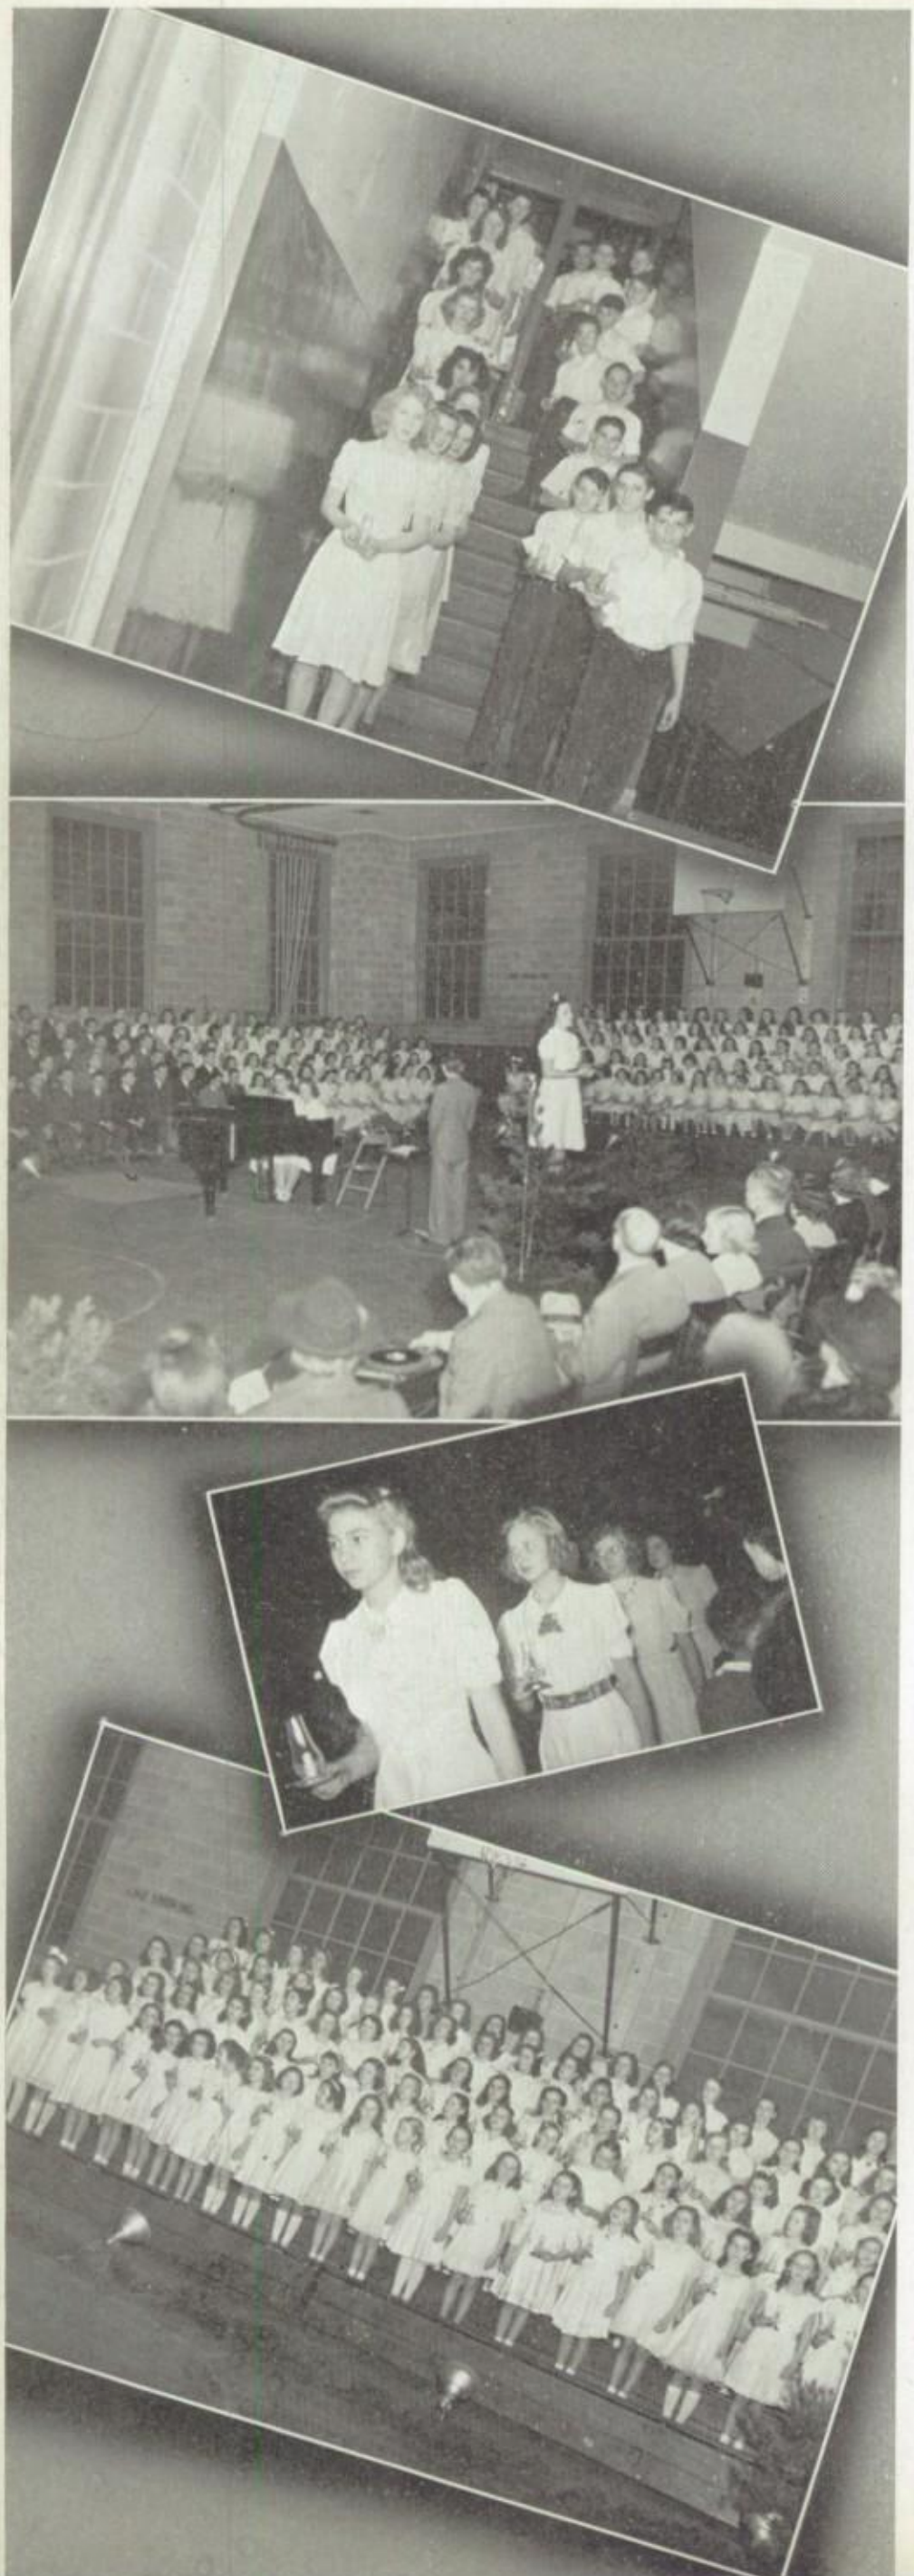
GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

The girls have taken part in the Christmas Play, Carol Service, May Festival, and many other school functions.



CHRISTMAS CAROL SERVICE

The traditional Christmas Carol Service, under the direction of Mr. William D. Burley, was held December 23, 1941. Participating in this service were the Mixed Chorus, the Girls' Glee Club, and the Brass Octet of the Senior High School, and all of the choruses of the Junior High School and the Grade School.

The singers, carrying lighted candles, marched into the gymnasium singing "Adeste Fideles." A number of the pictures show the procession through the halls and into the gymnasium, where the following program was given:

Second Row: D. Conklin, N. Inwright.
Adviser: Miss Parsons.

The 1941-42 program of the Franco-American Book Club has centered on a study of America as presented in the "river books" and a survey of currently published French books. These books were read in French and English. Reviews of them were made in English at a series of luncheon and tea meetings held in school and outside. Cooperating with the town library, the club prepared two displays for the outdoor show case; one on the newest French books and the other on the "River Books."

LIBRARY ASSISTANTS

OUR Library Assistants include boys and girls who have volunteered or accepted appointment to serve in that capacity. Usually one study period each week is devoted to this activity, though many have done a great deal more—coming in throughout the week, before or after school, or volunteering in the absence of a regular assistant.

Library Assistants assume all the duties of circulation, shelving of books, notifying students of overdue or reserved books and recording statistics. Filing catalog cards, pamphlets and pictures, caring for magazines and college catalogs, taking inventory and preparing new books for use also form part of their work. In addition, we depend on them to arrange bulletin boards or special displays and to care for the general appearance of the library and its collection of materials.

All catalog cards have been made by the First Student Secretary and other secretarial work, such as duplication, correspondence, order cards, etc., is performed by our two Student Secretaries, together with assistants who are able to type.

The work of this service group enables the librarian to work with the students on questions of reference and book selection, to attend faculty meetings and to widen her field of activities in many ways while the necessary library routine is cared for effectively. We owe a real debt of gratitude to these students whose work is unrewarded in any material way.

CHRISTMAS PLAY AND OPEN HOUSE

"WHY THE CHIMES RANG"

By ELIZABETH APTHORP MCFADDEN

THE scene of the play is laid in a peasant's hut on the edge of a forest near a cathedral town. It is a dark lowraftered room lit only by the glowing wood fire in the great fireplace, and by a faint moonlight that steals in through a little window which commands a view of the cathedral and the road leading down into the town.

When the curtains rise, Steen is sitting disconsolately on a stool near the fire. His brother, Holger, is patting him comfortingly . . . (Center picture.) The boys are planning to go up to the cathedral to attend the service and perhaps "hear the chimes ring." A half-starved, almost frozen old woman spoils their plans and Holger decides not to go . . . (Picture upper left).

However, the sight of the beautiful cathedral is not denied Holger. He sees the great service and the presentation of the gifts by the wealthy . . . "yes, even the king" . . . (Picture, lower left.) Holger is given the opportunity to present his mite and as his reward the chimes ring forth as we hear the Angel say, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, it is not gold nor silver, nor rich pearls but love and self sacrifice that please the Lord. The Christ Child was hungered and you gave Him meat, a stranger and you took Him in . . ." (Picture, upper right.)

"WHY THE CHIMES RANG"

UNDER the direction on Miss Marian Rodney, the beautiful play, "Why the Chimes Rang," was presented as the annual Christmas play. On December 12, the play was presented as the special feature of the annual Open House program, under the auspices of the Moorestown Home and School Association.

On December 16, the play was given twice; once for the Senior High School Assembly and later on the same day for the Junior Assembly.

The stage setting and lighting were done by Mr. Hutt and his stagecrafters. Mr. Noyes was in charge of decorating the auditorium, while Mr. Burley and his musical organizations furnished the music.

Special honors are due the Art Department for the beautiful cathedral windows used in the auditorium and the lovely altar setting.

On December 17, the play was presented for the fourth time at the Rancocas Valley Regional High School in Mount Holly.

SCENES FROM "GEORGE WASHINGTON SLEPT HERE"

SCENE I—"Newton! It's raining, Newton. Right in our little nest."
"Have you another bucket, Mr. Fuller, or shall I just open my mouth?"

SCENE II—"Here we are. Five thirty-eight express. Oh . . . Does not run after April twenty-first."

SCENE III—"Surprise, surprise. A visit from your old Uncle Stanley."

The Senior Class Presents

"GEORGE WASHINGTON SLEPT HERE"

HAVE you ever dreamt of owning a "little place in the country?" Newton Fuller did. His real troubles began when he purchased an old farmhouse, in historic Bucks County in Pennsylvania. The place included one well without water, one road that did not belong to the property, a cow that would not give milk, a roof that leaked, and a caretaker who attracted Japanese beetles. The only redeeming features of the whole place was the legend that George Washington had slept there, but it turned out that Benedict Arnold had been the guest. The play was given March 26, 27, 28. The cast included:

Mr. Kimber (the caretaker of the abandoned farm) ..... Ted Sanford
Newton Fuller (the man who purchased the abandoned farm) ..... Kenneth Diffenderfer
Annabelle Fuller (who prefers city life to country life) ..... Jean Dailey
Madge Fuller (their erring daughter) ..... Caroline Melchore
Steve Eldridge (Madge's boy friend) ..... Harvey Brown
Katie (the maid who quits because the live stock interferes with her kitchen duties) Catherine Reiley
Mrs. Douglas (a true neighbor of the Fullers') ..... Martha Juel
Rena Leslie (an actress who loathes the theater and the country) ..... Myrtle Brown
Clayton Evans (an actor who plays the leading role in several women's hearts) ... Robert Wynne
Hester (a sample of local labor) ..... Nan Walters
Raymond (fourteen-year-old nephew of the Fullers' who has a fondness for eavesdropping, skunks, and several other kinds of mischief) ..... Ezra Sharp, '45
Uncle Stanley (the "rich relative") ..... Markley P. Stow
Sue Barrington (loves old houses over the week-end—if it doesn't rain and spoil the fun) Sally McMillan
Leggatt Frazer (likes swimming and Sue) ..... Larry Atkinson
Tommy Hughes (visits the country for a week-end because he likes the sports and the food) William Carey
Miss Marian Wilcox (willowy and silent) ..... Bette Sutton
Mr. Prescott (the neighbor who hates people who trespass on his property) ..... Fred Smith

Scenes

The action takes place in an old stone house of Revolutionary days somewhere in Bucks County, Pennsylvania. The time is the present.

April 21—Mr. Burley made records of our singing
April 23—Julia Schlemon told us about Persia
May 5—Captain Osbourne—Traveler
May 21—Preview of the Annual Variety Show

MISS SHEARER, Dancer

THE 1942
VARIETY SHOW

THE traditional Variety Show of 1942 was presented on the evenings of May 23 and 24 in the high school auditorium. The production involved, first, the seeking out of 150 talented students; second, training these students; and third, presenting the students to the public in production for two evenings.

All students participating were selected by the try-out method and later grouped into acts either as a "star" performer or a supporting performer. The Variety Show was a revue with acts built around the most talented students of the school.

Participating organizations and individuals included The Hill Billy Band, The Hill Billy Dancers, The Rhythm Singers, Dancers and Dance Teams, Soloists (instrumental and vocal), an eight-piece pit orchestra, and other varied talents.

The 1942 Variety Show featured a pretty girl contest, a fashion show, a wedding, swing arrangements, snappy dance routines, and a grand patriotic finale. The entire production was sprinkled with bits of humor, reels of rhythm, hordes of harmony, a galaxy of pretty girls, and a series of pleasant surprises.

THE ANNUAL MUSIC FESTIVAL

THE Annual Music Festival was presented by the Music Department of the Moorestown High School on May 8, 1942 at 8:00 o'clock in the High School Gymnasium.

Three glee clubs consisting of two hundred and seventy voices and two instrumental organizations, produced a variety of public school music which appealed to all types of music lovers whether their inclinations be symphonic or "swing."

Part I of the program consisted of a band concert under the direction of Mr. Robert Gehringer, High School Band Director. Appearing on the program under this heading were such well-known compositions as Greig's "In the Hall of the Mountain King." The concert was interspersed with popular marches and concluded with the greatest of all marches, Sousa's "Stars and Stripes Forever."

Part II of the festival presented in concert: The Mixed Chorus, The Girls' Glee Club, The Rhythm Singers, and the High School Orchestra along with other specialities.

The combined glee clubs opened this portion of the program with a special arrangement of "America the Beautiful." Following this the orchestra gave its interpretation of Taylor's "Pomp and Chivalry," a heavy orchestral number arranged especially for high school orchestra by J. S. Seredy. The Girls' Glee Club presented an old English ballad entitled "Come to the Fair" and the Mixed Chorus in turn sang a spectacular arrangement of Rachmaninoff's "Prelude in C Sharp Minor" entitled "The Bells."

Ruth Hess, high school pianist, was featured in a modern setting of the famous "Piano Concerto No. 1 in B Flat" (Tschaikowsky) with the orchestra supplying the background. Other specialities introduced the Rhythm Singers in several sparkling presentations and solo numbers by Catherine Henle, lyric soprano.

The Glee Clubs combined their voices in settings of three famous hymns of all churches, which was followed by the Orchestra's rendition of the ever popular Viennese waltz "Artist's Life" (Strauss).

The 1942 edition of the music festival was concluded by the combined Glee Clubs singing two well-known choral selections, "The Lost Chord" (Sullivan) and "Annie Laurie" (Scott). The final number of the program was a special arrangement of "The Star Spangled Banner" for chorus and orchestra.

Part II of the music festival was planned and presented by Mr. William D. Burley, High School Music Supervisor.

"We See"

The American way of life entitles every man to be "what he wants to be." Our fellow classmates have expressed their desires.

We See:

Marie Antisdel as the leader of an all-girls orchestra. Playing under her baton will be Ruth Murphy and Jean Reimet. Dolly Sellitto will render the vocals,

Ernest Balfrey, Harvey Brown, Robert Burns, Joseph Garro, Richard Schulze and Paul Stow swinging down Broad Street in Navy blue and gold, Stephen Lefczik and Raymond Landis in Army gray, as modern Florence Nightingales, Katherine Fry, Jessie Graham, Miriam Lucas, Louise Meekins, Margaret Richardson and Kathleen Smith. Their unsuccessful cases will be taken care of by Donald Belton, Calvin Butler as veterinarian looking after the horses raised by Jean Sparks,

Roy Weidman as a pharmacist in a big new drug store,

Caroline Melchore and Fred Smith on the stage taking the place of Lynn Fontaine and Alfred Lunt,

In Hollywood, Peggy Kelley and Shirley Maines wearing clothes designed by Doris Hart, Gladys Bosy and Claire England as stylist, on the set Joyce Blessing and Barbara Given as scenario writers and Miriam Perrine and Ruth Rosenbaum as their secretaries, Evelyn Fallows helping with the art work, Frank Fee as electrician and Matt Hasselhan as photographer,

Winifred Chandler, Enid Figueroa, Betty French, Betty Sutton and Dorothy Viggiano modeling clothes designed by Alberta Rominski with their hair done by Frances Granville and Doris Armstrong,

Ben Stables taking the place of Kay Kyser with Jean Dailey as vocalist,

Jane Miller singing Wagnerian operas conducted by Harry Wood,

In the Merchant Marine Robert Brown, Charles Hahn, Herbert Kuhfuss, Charles Stephens and Robert Vitt,

As "leathernecks" William Lickfield and Robert Wren,

As our own millionaire Joseph Di Blasio.

Blond Eleanore, who is so fair,
Enjoys a game out in the air.

Betty's trying very hard
To play her best and be en garde.

No one disagrees at all:
Dot has plenty on the ball.

If you would some real hockey see,
Keep your eyes on Yvonne Gee.

Here's Elinore Rexon, like as not—
Though who could tell from this candid shot?

Glamour Girl Weiford strikes a pose
That puts the photographer on his toes.

No one will be surprised at all
If a goal is made by Peggy Hall.

Struck with zest by Peggy Fountain,
This ball may land in a distant mountain.

Look at Hockeyist Julia Hanners,
A comely girl with proper manners.

Why is Allice looking so coy?
Well, the photographer is a boy!

June 14, 1943.

Dear Benny:

I still don't believe this is yours but here goes nothing.

I hope you remember our typing class together, especially the L.C. Smith machine. I thought it was kind of fun.

Don't ever forget the handkerchief that I tied around my head to hold what few brains I have, in.

You know between you and Milton you have played quite a few dirty tricks on me. (including the one today) I am beginning to believe you are Hopelend = Did-O

Take good care of your brothers, especially Alford. Tell him not to work too hard. You know that I won't.

Don't forget the classes you & Milton took off because you needed the spare time.

We all know you mean right but (sometimes you don't prove it.

You also know that the Army Peeps & Jeeps are cute & that doesn't include what rides in them. There are only certain ones, (as you know.) Maybe if you would consult your brothers they could explain it better than I could.

Well Benny I guess that is just about all for now except that of course we all hope you will return next year & I hope that we have a few of our classes together, such as typing. You know (I hope) what I mean. It was a dirty trick but how many of us know that? I hope there is only 3 of us. Don't, for Heaven's Sake, tell others about it or else things won't go so hot for any of us. Well here's your letter & I hope you like it. So I closed remaining still a dope. (I guess)

Yours truly & Sincerely
Lidie Mary.

P.S. Lots of Luck & Success though, & Luck the next I am sick about the Lord be with you can't be good be careful your heart. I am nice

P.S. I forgot to get me some flowers out of that flower bed next year. maybe you would find some other kind of flower there if it will suit your bull dog.

I hope I didn't say anything wrong in here because I don't want to get you in Dutch.
